FOREIGN-BORN TRAITOR TO THE REPUBLIC.

ANDREW CARNEGIE APPEARS AS A MISCHIEF-BREEDER.

He is accused of spending part of the money he made in this country in cabling Hoar's slip-over to the Philippines—Dastardly work known to the President.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—(Exclusive Direct.)—It is known something over $4000 was sent to Senator Hoar's message of sympathy and comfort to the rebellious Tagals. Andrew Carnegie paid the bill. Carnegie's connection with the sending of Hoar's speech to Aranuado has been known by President McKinley and his friends for some time. Until the cablegram was opened by ex-Minister Barrett's ad-vice before students of Lake Forest University, near Chicago, last Saturday evening, the administration had preserved the silence of discretion, however, no further reason appears why the truth should not be known, and the statement that Carnegie paid the cablegram was made tonight by one of President McKinley's closest friends, a member of Congress, who on other occasions has been presumed to act as the administration's spokesman.

Incidental to this disclosure, it is intimated that still further exposures may be expected. Carnegie is known to have captured a large part of the official records of Aranuado's so-called government. These records now are on the way to Washington. They contain matters implicating other prominent Americans besides Carnegie and Senator Hoar is to be expected. A course of action in this connection will pursue when these documents reach Washington cannot be learned. It is probable, however, that they will be included with other matter pertaining to the Philippine insurrection, which would be sent to the Senate if one of the resolutions requesting information from the President is adopted.

MANILA, Jan. 15, 5:40 p.m.—Part of Gen. John C. Bates' troops are operating about Lake Taal. The insurgents continue to retreat south. Col. Hayes, with the Fourth Cavalry, is still pursuing the rebels. Lipa, where many Spanish prisoners are held, Col. Anderson, with the Thirty-eighth Infantry, took Talisay, on the north shore of the lake, and is now pursuing the rebels. Col. Bryan was asked for his views on the plan of President Hadley tonight, just as he was leaving his hotel to go to the station. He was surrounded by many personal and political friends. He said:

"The idea is a good one, and should be encouraged. A man who tries to rob the public by means of a bribe or by writing a book or a article should no more be countenanced by society than a plain highwayman. The time is needed to awaken and educate the public mind and conscience on such matters."

"When the people understand the true nature of these men, they will be ready to avenge the remedy. There are things which are permitted in society twenty-five years ago which are not tolerated at all today. The change has been wrought through education. A similar change will take place when the people learn the true moral status of the trust question."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—(Exclusive Direct.)—Whether Senator Quay will get his seat or not, it appears to be pretty certain that his trip has been sent to the Republican legislative delegation to California that it is not considered advisable to hold an extra session of the Legislature in that State to elect a Senator at the present time.

From this some people jump at the conclusion that a deal has been fixed for seating both Quay and Burns, but the cablegram said that Republicans here do not care to run the risk of disrupting the Republican party by allowing Burns to make an effort to be elected at an extra session. This view seems more in accord with the good sense of the Republican leaders than the other view.

CENSOR'S FUN.

OVERMATCHED
BY THE TRANSVAAL FORCE.POSSIBLE EXPLANATION OF GEN.
BULLER'S INACTIVITY.

It is suggested that in view of the rapid rise in the price of provisions in South Africa, the owners of the seized provisions will realize a handsome profit by the detention of their goods until this time.

MARLBOROUGH SAILS SATURDAY.

(A. P. DAY REPORT.)

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Duke of Marlborough, who volunteered for service in South Africa, will sail for Cape Town Saturday.

WARRIOR'S POSITION.

(A. P. DAY REPORT.)

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 15.—A dispatch to the Argus, dated Friday last, January 12, says: "The authorities have received news that Gen. Warren has crossed the Tugela and is marching north of the river." This report has been current here since yesterday, but is discounted in official circles.

ODDS AND ENDS.

(A. P. DAY REPORT.)

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Up to the present time the reported crossing of the Tugela River by Gen. Buller's division remains but rumor. Nevertheless the whole tenor of such news as has been in circulation in Africa during the last forty-eight hours indicates that a combined forward movement of a comprehensive character is proceeding. It is not clear what is behind the unconfirmed stories from Boers being in full retreat from Caledon, because it has been learned that a column is proceeding north to the Tugela. It is on the retreat. But at the same time credible information from many sources indisputably points to important changes in the disposition of the British forces.

Advice from Pietermaritzburg, dated Saturday, January 13, says that since their defeat January 6, the Boers have been steadily giving up positions south of Ladysmith. The same dispatch confirms the report that the Thirteenth Hussars, under General Kruger, are now marching the Boers. As the trenches at Groblerskroon were perhaps the strongest position held by the Boers, their value is easily considerable to the British.

Merchants at Pietermaritzburg have received messages from Ladysmith saying: "During yesterday afternoon the British Ladysmith agents anticipated an immediate opening of communication, while Ladysmith also telegraphed the same information. January 13, the Boers were moving and concentrating their forces elsewhere. As corroborative of the British activity in the afternoon, a despatch from Pretoria was received in London from Gen. Buller to the effect that he expected all the dispositions for a synchronous movement of the various columns against the Boers to be completed this morning.

Under these circumstances, it is considered quite probable that the advance on the besieged town has commenced, and that fighting is progressing. Optimists go so far as to say that this is only a matter of time.

The Boers were moving and concentrating their forces elsewhere. As corroborative of the British activity in the afternoon, a despatch from Pretoria was received in London from Gen. Buller to the effect that he expected all the dispositions for a synchronous movement of the various columns against the Boers to be completed this morning.

There is no confirmation of this report, and altogether there is a more hopeful feeling in official circles.

There is little news of importance from Pietermaritzburg. Gen. French's forces have succeeded in dragging a 15-pounder to the summit of the rocky Colenso. They then set about the British gunners, and they successfully routed a Boer camp three miles away from Stormsrtoom.

An interesting item of news is that 200 Boers, encamped at a small camp, have recently gathered all the crops within two miles of Blou River, the British force being too weak to interfere.

A dispatch from Pretoria says the federal forces recommended bombardment of Mafeking during the morning of Friday, January 12.

A partial development of the government's plan to use these dispatches, January 12, but by no means the main objective hinted at can be recorded today in the formation of a strong committee of the African and ex-soldiers with Lord Loch, the former Governor of Cape Colony and British High Commissioner, as president.

Later Mr. Kruger said: "What is to prevent Rhodes and his confederates from engineering a rebellion in England, and the imperial authorities would take steps to punish the organizers and prevent such freebooting."

President Kruger approached Mr. Robinson, placed a hand on his shoulder, made violent effort to suppress him, and said: "You mean well, but I have lost all confidence. What has happened would take place again, and I am determined to guard against it."

Later Mr. Kruger said: "What is to prevent Rhodes and his confederates from engineering a rebellion in England, and the imperial authorities would take steps to punish the organizers and prevent such freebooting."

Mr. Robinson proposed to publish a book giving the true history of the Boer War.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Wolfsohn scheme of Los Angeles has been given a new turn, and promises to develop details of an original and daring scheme to swindle insurance companies. The plan seems to have originated in Chicago, and for novelty and for freshness it is worthy of the genius of the Windy City. Instead of following the usual method of collecting of an insurance policy, the body of the insured entered into the body of the insurance company, and thus the Chicago schemers persuaded the insurance company that some body was attempting that game, and guaranteed for $500 to produce Wolfsohn alive and well, and thus save $10,000 in insurance. The insurance company's agents in Chicago, Los Angeles, and, lastly, in San Francisco, have been investigating. Today the investigations were that the mystery would soon be cleared away and that the body of the insured would be found.
It has been shown apparently that question, that Wolfsohn and Reuter was one and the same;
that Wolfsohn, under the name of Reuter, was in Los Angeles at the time of the suicide; that the residence between Wolfsohn and the dead man was the same; that the dead man, who was a member of the insurance company, was killed in the course of his business; and that he committed suicide in memory of his employer.

There is proof that Wolfsohn and the dead man were the same person. This therefore renders it almost absolutely certain that the body buried was that of Wolfsohn. At any rate, it removes from consideration the mythical third person whose body was supposed to have been buried.

grower agrees to submit the crop to the insurance company, and to cure and deliver the same safely. For all money advanced the association is to have a lien on the crop, and to have it paid off when the crop is sold.

In consideration of such sale the association agrees to undertake: the specification, packing and shipping of the crop, and to make sales under its own trade-mark and guarantees of quality, as specified as possible; and for the hire of a warehouse, and to

MR. HOAR'S RESPONSIBILITY.

The statement made by Hon. John W. Hoar, ex-Minister from the United States to Siam, relative to the use of Hoar's speech in inciting the insurrection, places a heavy load of responsibility upon the inhabitants of the Philippines. Such support we shall extend to them, despite the protests and the opposition of traitors at home and the armed resistance of misguided and uninformed men in the islands themselves. But the inhabitants of the Philippines would now be in the enjoyment of the blessings of as free a government as any on earth, if the absurd notion had not been put into their heads, by Hoar and others, that they could achieve liberty and establish an "independent government" by making war upon the American name.

It is cumulatively and overwhelmingly apparent that the inhabitants of the Philippines are not at present capable of wise and successful self-government. That they may become so in course of time, under proper tutelage and guardianship, is possibly probable. But they are not at present capable of independent action. They need—and must, if they are to make real progress—the supporting hand of a stronger power, experienced in the science of government, unselfish in its purposes, and just in its methods. Such a supporting hand it has been our intention, from the first, to extend to the inhabitants of the Philippines. Such support we shall extend to them, despite the protests and the opposition of traitors at home and the armed resistance of misguided and uninformed men in the islands themselves. But the inhabitants of the Philippines would now be in the enjoyment of the blessings of as free a government as any on earth, if the absurd notion had not been put into their heads, by Hoar and others, that they could achieve liberty and establish an "independent government" by making war upon the American name.

R. BABCOCK WAS FRIGHTENED.

All the way from Mason City, Cerro Gordo county, Iowa, there comes to The Times office a copy of the Republican, a newspaper printed in that town, which contains a letter from one R. Babcock, dated at Los Angeles on December 28, in which the terrified writer tells of the awful horrors of the earthquake which gently awakened the people hereabouts on Christmas morning. Babcock was apparently frightened half to death by the tremor, and on December 28 had not fully regained his nerve, although it is easy to see that his gall and his imagination were still working like clocks.

In the course of his hysterical screed, Babcock goes on to say that his bed "heaved and set" like a ship in a heavy sea; that the house "weaved and swayed like a drunken man"; that bric-a-brac tumbled from shelves and mantels; that clocks stopped, and that the very Dickens was to pay all along the line.

But other things than mere matter of earthquakes fill Babcock, as it appears, for it is quite evident from his few remarks that the adroit and seductive "Poker" Davis must have been doing the "best he could" to relieve Babcock of his "wad," for he (Babcock) goes on to say in Los Angeles the wave of tourists following in their wake "thieves, blacklegs, bunc-steers, con men, gamblers, burglars, cracksmen, the rough toughs and hobos, for this is the catch basin for all creation at this season of the year."

Babcock goes on to say "further" that the town is full of hussy (mostly from Iowa) hobs that it is impossible for him to come down town without being "importuned by one or more of this bear-eyed class for a dime to buy them a dinner." Babcock does not say whether he "toughed up" or not, but the chances are that he carefully refrained from it.

R. Babcock closes his wail of woe by saying that: "This is a beautiful but sinful city. Iowa has some unpleasant features, but there are others." It is even so. We sometimes have Babcock that cuts out here and have conviction that cuts out when the earth gets a little jar in its "innards," and tenders are forever trying to get the best of "Poker" Davis and then squealing to the newspapers back East.

Of course this is a sinful city. How can sinfulness be avoided? When we have Babcocks? If the East will keep them here we will be all right, and life hereabouts will be quite as well worth living as it is in a country where the cyclone toys with the populace and reduces the population so fast that the census looks like the breaking up of a hard winter.

One of the phenomenal gold mines of the Southwest is the Yellow Aster at Randsburg, which has turned out gold to the value of nearly $1,000,000 during the past three years. A full description of this great mining property, with illustrations, is published in the Midwinter Number of The Times.

Most any one would prefer to see Mr. Bryan riding an ostrich rather than astraddle of a hobby whose ribs can be counted.

concretely and abstractly proves to suppose that the government of the United States, which rests, secondarily, and at all upon the consent, the will, and the assent of the governed, could conceivably under any circumstances shun the shams of a despotic, oppressive, tyrannical government anywhere. STILL AT IT.

It is evident that these few people, like Gov. Murphy of Arizona, who advocate the cession of the arid lands to the States and Territories in which they are located, have by no means abandoned their fight, although, having realized that the force of public sentiment is against them, they are not now coming out so much into the open, but are adopting backhawking tactics. A dispatch from Washington recently announced that Representative Shafroth has introduced a bill, identical with the one he introduced in the last Congress, donating 1,000,000 acres of arid land to each of the States undertaking to reclaim the same. Under the proposed measure, reclamation shall be construed accomplished when an ample supply of water is furnished by the ditch, artesian wells or reservoirs to reclaim the lands. Lands selected under the act not claimed within ten years shall revert to the public domain.

The progress of this measure in the House should be closely watched. While there is no doubt that a majority of our legislators are opposed to any such measure—or would be opposed, in case they had given the subject proper consideration—yet there is always a chance that, through indifference or ignorance, the conspirators may be able to push through their scheme. The cession of a million acres of land to each of the interested States, as proposed by the Shafroth bill, would result in the "cutting" of the public domain in every State to control the river banks, under pretense of settlement, but in reality to enable the great land syndicates to control the lands adjoining the streams, and thus shutting out the small holders or settlers. That they may become so in course of time, under proper tutelage and guardianship, is possibly probable. But they are not at present capable of independent action. They need—and must, if they are to make real progress—the supporting hand of a stronger power, experienced in the science of government, unselfish in its purposes, and just in its methods. Such a supporting hand it has been our intention, from the first, to extend to the inhabitants of the Philippines. A New York correspondent of The Times newspaper says that Edwin Markham was a guest of the Social Reform Club at its room in University Place in New York last Wednesday night, and "talked about the poem for a while." Of course, the particular poem that Mr. Markham talked about was "The Man With the Hoe." It is a cold day in all parts of the country, inclusive of the Philippines Islands, Florida, Puerto Rico, Yuma, and probably hades, when Mr. Markham is not talking about that poem "for a while." The poet has played on that string until it is all frayed out.

The Arena Magazine is, we are told, to become a Democratic organ. This is the same publication that "Smoothy" Boyce, of unfragrant memory, was for some time connected with, therefore the horrifying odor of the publication will probably not be much changed because of this shift in the cut. We willingly acknowledge, however, that the Democrats cannot hope to attain the same strength of cartoon-like flavor that surrounded the premises when "Smoothy" was working the public and stirring up the ville smella.

There is a vast amount of matter reaching this country regarding the military operations and situation in South Africa, but there is not enough real information in a whole cord of it to inform the world as to the true inwardness of things. All of which goes to show that the censor over there is an expert performer.

Our troops in the Philippines continue to scour the country and to brush aside the fleeing Filipinos like so many small insects. The insects here at home, particularly those in Congress, continue to buzz, but the government knows where and how to apply insect powder, which will shortly be made, this community will sustain its well-known reputation for public enterprise and repulsive liberality.

MOROSCO'S BURBANK THEATER.

"Wang," with the Grau Opera Company, commences its engagement at this Sunday evening, is set down in the bill as "comic opera in two acts by Cheever Goodwin and Wolsten Mose." The program is a comic opera, an operatic extravaganza, and in the bill is a comedy which will remain in the repertoire of the company for a long time to come.

WATER PROPOSITION.

OFFER FROM KESSLER & CO. TO BUY THE PLANT.

City to Receive a Percentage—Fifty-year Lease Asked—Water Company—Statement—Saloon Ordinance Passed.

Justice James Holds, on Demurral, That Trap-shooting Pigeons is by No Means Necessarily Cruelty to Animals.

Mrs. Shorb Testifies—Fight Over Insurance—Coronel-Smith Suit Compromised—Fire Begs to Whittier.

A proposition to purchase the water plant and supply the city with water for a term of years was submitted to the Council yesterday by Kessler & Co. The New York firm wishes to secure a lease for a term of years in return for which they will pay the city a percentage of the receipts. At the expiration of the contract the entire plant would revert to the city on payment of certain specified fees.

The annual statement of the Los Angeles City Water Company was filed with the City Clerk yesterday afternoon. The statement would seem to indicate that the expenses of the water company are in excess of the receipts. Some peculiar methods of book-keeping are involved, which are not altogether clear to the city officials.

The Mayor sent an message to the Council yesterday urging that the charges brought against Capt. W. C. Roberts be investigated. A committee consisting of Councilmen Toll, Baker and Pessell was appointed to investigate and discover whether it would be desirable to call the attention of the Finance Committee to the matter with instructions to make a thorough investigation.

The saloon ordinance was reported by the Finance Committee and passed. It changes the wording of the law so as to conform to the intent of the Council.

Justice James sustains the demurral interposed to the complaint filed in the Township Court, charging A. W. Bruner with cruelty for trap-shooting pigeons.

Mrs. Shorb testified yesterday in the saloon case now on trial in the Superior Court.

Laura Rutledge and her children, and Mary E. Buzzard, were in Judge York's court yesterday, the wife for her children's sake, demanding the insurance money due from the Woodmen of the World on the death of William Rutledge.

The legal and ecclesiastical litigation of his wife against Dr. C. Edgar Smith has been settled out of court.

Louie Gant, a black negro boy, was charged with having set fire to other people's houses—fun for fun, to see de Ingines come a-runnin'."

MUNICIPAL WATER SUPPLY.

KESSLER & CO. MAKE A PROPOSITION TO THE CITY.

A Lease for Fifty Years Asked, at the End of Which Time the Property Would Revert to the City—City Water Company's Statement—Roberts Case to Be Investigated.

ANOTHER PROPOSITION LOOKING to the ownership and control of the Los Angeles water system for a term of years was made to the Council yesterday by Kessler & Co., a firm of New York bankers. The bankers offer to purchase the Los Angeles City Water Company and of the Crystal Springs Land and Water Company, and to have a judgment entered whereby the title and ownership of the waters of the Crystal Springs will be settled in favor of the city, in consideration of being allowed to furnish the city with water for a term of years for a certain specified sum for all improvements made after the first five years.

A somewhat similar proposition was received by the Council yesterday, but no action was ever taken on the matter by the Council, the communication being sent to the Water Supply Committee with-out debate, and a special meeting of the committee will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock to consider the matter. The plan, as outlined, is as follows:

To the Honorable Mayor and Council of the city of Los Angeles: Gentlemen: We would respectfully submit herewith to your honorable body, a proposition with reference to the settlement of the water question, which we trust will receive your careful and favorable consideration.

Our proposition embodies most of the conditions contained in our communication made to you a short time ago, but we have added thereto a clause which will overcome the great objection of any possible arbitration in the future.

Our proposition is this: In this city and Southern California (we will only name the purchase by us of the bonds of the Los Angeles Traction Company,) and the Los Angeles Water Company, the same would insure to the city all the benefits of municipal ownership without any of its burdens. It would furthermore assure an influx of capital to the extent of millions of dollars, all of which must be given to the town and the increase of population.

It is our opinion that the city may at all times what it may be called upon to pay, and what is being done by us, it will be safe to say, will be in full accordance with the spirit of the law.

ASSAULTED CHINAMAN.

SIM BISBEE AND OTHER YOUNG MEN IN TROUBLE.

Sim Bisbee, son of the man to the charge of bawdry in Justice Hall's court yesterday, but denied all knowledge of having committed the crime. He accounted for his lapse of memory on the ground that he had imbibed copious quantities of wine, which left his mind blank for a time. The time being, Lee Chewey, a Chinaman who abode and place of business is at No. 432 Los Angeles street, accounted for the blunder in Bisbee's memory as follows:

There was a row of some sort in the notorious Remond's Saloon, Main street, Saturday night. Lee Chewey's place is in the rear of the saloon. The fight was in progress a man came out of the back door of the saloon and rushed into Lee Chewey's, as if looking for a place to hide. The Chinaman asked him what he wanted, and as the intruder refused to make his business known, he ordered him out of the store. The fellow refused to go and advanced toward the Chinaman in a threatening manner. Chewey retreated to the living quarters, forced by his uninvited visitor, who crowded him into a corner and struck him a stinging blow on the nose. Chewey's assailant then took him out of the Chinaman's house and disappeared in an alley. Lee Chewey ran to North Main street and told his troubles to a policeman.

Officer Henderson investigated and found Sim Bisbee hiding behind a pile of boards in the alley. He denied having struck the Chinaman, but could give no excuse for taking refuge in the alley. Lee Chewey, who crowded him into a corner and struck him a stinging blow on the nose. Chewey's assailant then took him out of the Chinaman's house and disappeared in an alley. Lee Chewey ran to North Main street and told his troubles to a policeman.

Lee Chewey's nose was still badly swollen when he appeared in the Police Court yesterday to test his case against his assailant. He said it was the first time he had been in jail before for a long while, and if this course of action led him into jail with him he would sign a pledge never to drink again.

ORANGES IN THE EAST yesterday.
FRUIT MOVING VERY SLOWLY.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Twenty-three cars of California oranges were sold at auction today. Navel sold at about the same figure as Friday's sale, seedlings showing a decline of 10 cents. Dealers report the fruit moving very slowly, and notwithstanding unfavorable weather, stocks have accumulated, causing buyers to be very conservative. There are now on the track and due twenty-five cars compared with thirty-seven cars last Monday, and if the receipts do not increase, the sale Wednesday may be about the same. The better results. Sales of extra fancy, naval, regular sizes, below grade, 2.40¢; 2.35, average 2.61; small sizes, 2.15¢ to 2.35; average 2.54; small sizes, 2.05¢ to 2.40, average 2.21; choice regular sizes, 1.95¢ to 2.15; small sizes, 1.85¢ to 2.20; choice, 1.95¢ to 2.10; standard regular sizes, 1.55¢ to 1.95; average, 1.87¢ to 2.11; small sizes, 1.45¢ to 1.95; average, 1.75¢ to 2.05; extra fancy seedlings, regular sizes, 1.85¢ to 2.05, average 1.92; small sizes, 1.82¢ to 2.00; average 1.87; fancy, regular sizes, 1.80¢ to 2.00; small sizes, 1.66¢ to 1.95; average, 1.72; choice, 1.85¢ to 2.05; standard regular sizes, 1.65¢ to 1.95; average, 1.49¢ to 1.90, average 1.65; twelve boxes extra fancy lemon, smooth, thin skins, were sold today, 30¢ to 42¢, 2.20¢ to 3.20, average 2.83. These prices should not be taken as the prevailing market, as a card would realize considerably less.

Boston Citrus-fruit Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) There were nine cars of California oranges sold at auction today. The weather was warm and favorable. Prices were about the same as last Friday. There was a large attendance at the board, most of the dealers expecting prices would go much lower than they did at last Friday's sale. This probably would have been the case if all the fruit on the track had been offered. A number of cars were held out, and the offerings were not sufficiently light for Monday. At present there are ten cars remaining on the track unsold. Small-sized navels are selling very slowly. Nearly every car offered showed a heavy proportion of seedlings. Dealers report that they are accumulating in the market, as they expect they will sell considerably lower than the present prices. Fancy navels, regulars, $2.40 to 3.60, averaged 2.70; small, $2.20 to 2.75, averaged 2.17; choice navels, regulars, $2.30 to 3.50, averaged 2.65; small, $2.20 to 2.60, averaged 2.42; standard navels, regulars, $1.55 to 2.45, averaged 2.22; fancy seedlings, regulars, $1.50 to 2.00, averaged 1.82.

Philadelphia Citrus-fruit Market.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Nine cars of California and 900 boxes of Jamaica oranges were sold today at auction. The prices realized show no improvement over those of last week, nor does the outlook warrant the expectation of higher prices in the near future. Dealers claim that the oranges have been selling too high, hence the limited demand, and the competition will not be what it should be until fruit can be produced at lower prices. The times resulting today reflect this feeling. Reports of heavy shipments from the coast influence the market unfavorably, and handlers are proceeding cautiously. The Jamaican gold today were in very good condition and have ceased to be a factor except that they supply the demand for cheap oranges and thereby interfere with the sale of California seedlings. The demand for seedlings is very poor. Small-sized navels are much lower than a week ago. Prices today were as follows: Fancy navels, regular sizes, $2.40 to 3.60, averaged 2.64; choice navels, regular sizes, $2.20 to 2.50, averaged 2.32; small sizes, $1.50 to 2.50, averaged 1.88; choice seedlings, regular sizes, $1.30 to 1.65, averaged 1.54. Nine hundred boxes of Jamaica, 75¢ to 1.30, averaged 97 cents.
